

Flying Tiger Self Defense

Scholarship Application

Applicant's Name: _____

Parent's Name: _____

Contact Phone Number: _____

Contact Email: _____

Amount Requesting: _____

Number of Months Requesting: _____

Reason scholarship is being requested: _____

Please explain why you need this scholarship Please keep it simple. There is no need to disclose personal financial details. Something simple like medical bills due, reduction of work, looking for work, attending school, want an additional family member to attend class, etc.

Rules:

You can apply for any scholarship amount and any duration of 1-6 months. We ask that during your scholarship period you cover the minimum amount at least cover the basic fees associated with having you as a student (usually $25-30/month). This is a sliding scale scholarship, so we ask that when you are able please pay the amount that is feasible for you between the minimum and the normal tuition amount. To re-apply for scholarship after 6 months, please complete a new application.

Application Requirements

Please attach a copy of these documents:

1. Academic Grades (if applicable). All applicants under 23yrs must be enrolled in K-12, college, or skills class unless professional certificate or college degree has already been earned. Please attach your latest academic report. You are required to have and maintain a B- or above (or equivalent) in all classes to earn a scholarship. To keep your scholarship longer than 3 months, you must present up-to-date grades.

2. Letters of Recommendation & Essay

Current Students 1+ Years – Only required upon request

Current Students less than 1 Years - One letter of recommendation (from spouse, parent, friend, classmate, etc)

Not Current Students – Three letters of recommendation (from spouse, parent, friend, classmate, etc) & Essay (Not current students only) – Please write an essay explaining, “Why I feel you deserve and why you would like a martial arts scholarship” or an essay along those lines.

Signature: _____

Application Date: _____

Applications are good for 6 months from this date, then a new application must be submitted. Updated grades (if applicable) must be submitted 3 months from the application date to keep your scholarship through the duration of 4-6 month, as requested and awarded.